TAPPING INTO THEOLOGY

MONDAY, NOV. 18, 2019

6:30 - 8:30 PM

WILD BLUE YONDER BREWING
CO.'S CARRIAGE HOUSE

519 WILCOX ST., CASTLE ROCK

COURAGE: FACING CHALLENGES TO SEXUAL MORALITY WITHIN THE CHURCH AND FROM THE SECULAR CULTURE

Rev. Mark Zacker has served the Diocese of Colorado Springs since 2002 in 5 parishes, most recently as Pastor at Corpus Christi Church before his current pastoral assignment at St. Francis of Assisi in Castle Rock, where he now serves the Hispanic community. Since 2012 he has been Chaplain to the diocesan Courage and Encourage Ministries, assisting individuals and their families in their struggles over same-sex attraction.

Beverages and appetizers available in the Carriage House anytime during the discussion, but for full dinner arrive before 6 to order there or in the restaurant.

SPACE LIMITED TO 49. Please register online at TAPPINGINTOTHEOLOGY.COM

The first 30 individuals or couples to sign up will receive a free copy of Bishop Robert Barron's Letter to a Suffering Church, available in advance and to be discussed that evening.

Visit TappingIntoTheology.com for information on future events.
